

Our quality of home time has been so wonderful without being harassed by telemarketers. My family and I would be very upset if it started all over again. Please keep it the way it is in New Jersey.